17.01 PURPOSES

The following constitute the purposes of this Sign Bylaw:

- to regulate the use of signs as a safe and effective means of information and communication in the Town of Hubbardston,
- to provide an orderly permitting process of permanent signs and an effective framework for the maintenance of temporary signs in the Town,
- to allow property owners the ability to identify their locations and promote their goods, services and/or products through on-premises signage,
- and to execute the above-mentioned purposes while maintaining the rural New England character of the Town.

17.02 DEFINITIONS

The following definitions will serve as a supplement to the definition of "Sign" as presented in Section 2.27 of these bylaws:

Abandoned Sign – A sign that no longer identifies a bona fide business, lessor, service, owner, product or activity OR for which the time of event is fourteen (14) days passed.

Awning / Canopy / Marquee - Any permanent, roof-like structure projecting beyond a building or extending along and projecting beyond the wall of the building, generally designed and constructed to provide protection from the weather.

Development / Construction Sign - A temporary sign of an architect, engineer, owner, or contractor, erected during the period such a person/entity is performing work on the premises at which such sign is erected. This type of sign qualifies as a "temporary" sign and must adhere to the limitations assigned in Section 17.13 of this bylaw.

Electronic Message Center (EMC) - An exterior computer programmable sign capable of displaying words, numbers, symbols, figures or images that can be altered or rearranged by remote means without altering the face or surface of the sign.

Externally Illuminated Sign - A sign with light upon it either upwardly or downwards from an outside source, as more specifically discussed in Section 7.11 of this Sign Bylaw.

Gateway Sign - A permanent sign used to direct attention to a site which includes a lot(s) considered as a unit for development purposes. This includes, without limitation: permanent subdivision, apartment or condominium complex signs, as well as signs for a campus of an academic institution, or industrial /office park or shopping plaza.

Identification Sign - A sign used solely to identify the name, address, and title of an individual family or firm occupying the premises on which the sign is located.

Incidental Sign - An informational or directive, the purpose of which is secondary to the use of the premises, site, or lot on which it is located, such as "No Parking" or other similar directives.

Internally Illuminated Sign - A sign illuminated from inside including balloon and neon signs but excluding Light Emitting Diode (LED) and Electronic Messaging (EMC) signs. For further information on Internally Illuminated Signs see Section 7.11.

LED Sign - A Light Emitting Diode Sign as more specifically discussed in Section 7.12.

Multi-Tenant Ladder Sign - A single free-standing sign that encompasses the signs of multiple business occupants of that building, premises, lot, or site.

Nonconforming Sign - Any sign that does not conform to the requirements of this bylaw.

Off-Premise Sign - Any sign that advertises or indicates a usage, an activity, or an event to be conducted by a person or entity other than the person or entity occupying the premises, lot or site on which the sign is erected or maintained, or a business or businesses other than that of the person or entity occupying the premises, lot or site or transacted thereon.

On-Premise Sign - Any sign that advertises or indicates the one or more usages, activities, or events conducted on the premises, lot or site on which the sign is erected or maintained.

Permanent Sign - A sign that is permanently mounted, including its support structure, and the purpose of which is use for a permanent, continuous display.

Political Sign - A noncommercial sign erected to show support for a candidate for public office or to express a political opinion. This sign is considered a temporary sign for the purposes of this bylaw.

Primary Sign - The principal permanent sign of a business, institution, service, or occupant, including without limitation a home business or commercial business, whether conducted by a person or an entity. The primary sign will include the name of the person or entity or, if a business, institution or service, the trade name under which the person or entity conducts such activity.

Real Estate Sign - A sign that advertises or indicates that the premises or the lots or sites on which the sign is erected, and/or the building located thereon, is for sale or lease, and includes signs advertising the conduct of an open house activity thereon. NOTE: A sign of this type that is not located on said premises shall be deemed an off-premises temporary sign for the purposes of this bylaw.

Roof Sign - A sign which is located above, or projected two (2) feet above, the lowest point of the eaves of the top story or the top of a parapet wall of any building, or which is painted on or fastened to a roof.

Service Station LED Sign – For the purposes of this bylaw, a Service Station LED sign shall be one that only displays the price/cost of a fuel product.

Street Spanning / Banner Sign – A Sign suspended above or immediately adjacent to a street or roadway, including without limitation Signs that traverse the air space above an entire street or roadway.

Temporary Sign - Any sign that is not permanent sign, as more specifically discussed in Section 7.13.

Wall Sign - Any sign attached parallel to, but within six (6) inches of a wall, painted on the wall surface, or erected and confined within the limits of an outside wall of any building or structure, which is supported by such wall or building, and which displays only one sign surface. Window or door lettering, murals, decorative artwork are not to be considered or regulated as Wall Signs.

Window Sign - A sign physically adhered to the inside or outside of a window surface.

17.03 APPLICABILITY

The provisions of this sign bylaw apply to the construction, erection, alteration, use, location, and maintenance of all new signs. It is the intent of this bylaw to bring all signs into conformance as they are updated.

- a. General Provisions:

- a. In addition to the General Standards set forth in 17.05, a temporary freestanding sign cannot exceed six (6) feet in height above ground. The height restriction does not apply to flags or hand-held signs.
- b. Any temporary sign advertising a seasonal or temporary event may only be displayed for thirty (30) days prior to the event and must be removed ten (10) days following the close of the event. This includes political election signs, construction signs, event signs, and real estate signs. b. On Private Property:
- c. All temporary signs placed on private property must be placed with the permission of the property owner, which may be granted or withheld in the sole discretion of the property owner. c. On Public Property:
- d. Temporary Signs that are held by an individual are permitted on public property provided that they do not violate any other provisions within this bylaw or other law, rule, or order of a court of government.
- e. Temporary Signs must be located at least five (5) ft. from the paved portion of any street or public way.
- f. No temporary sign shall be placed within the median of any public street.
- g. No temporary sign shall be placed upon any public property other than a public sidewalk, except that temporary signs may be placed in an unimproved right-of-way with consent of the owner of the adjoining property.
- h. No temporary sign shall be attached to or leaned against any utility facility (including poles and boxes) or any state or municipal sign.
- i. All temporary signs placed on public property must have on them the date on which they were placed and the contact number of the advertiser.
- j. All temporary signs placed on public property must be removed within fourteen (14) days.
- k. In the event a Temporary Sign does not conform to these requirements, then the Town may in its sole discretion authorize an inspector or agent to remove the Temporary Sign and deliver it to the Building / Land Use Department for destruction. A fee of $10 may be charged for this removal / destruction.

Or take any action relative thereto.
